

CENTRE FOR ARCHITECTURAL & SCULPTURAL HERITAGE (CASH)

Vinayaka Mission's Research Foundation (Deemed to be University)
& Vastu Vedic Trust Founded by Dr. V. Ganapati Sthapati
Jointly Conducts
A Certificate Course on Traditional Housing Architecture

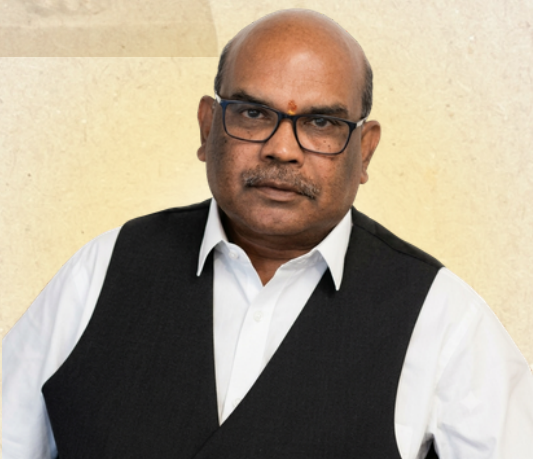

Vinayaka Mission's Research Foundation has signed an MoU with Vastu Vedic Trust to establish the Centre for Architectural & Sculptural Heritage as a landmark initiative to cherish our culture, learn from timeless traditions, and create greater awareness of India's architectural and sculptural heritage.

About the Course

The certificate course, "Traditional Housing Architecture", is thoughtfully curated to reconnect learners with the profound wisdom of India's architectural heritage. Participants will embark on a journey through the complete process of housing design, firmly rooted in the principles of Vastu Shastra.

- Learners engage with original treatises such as the Manasara and the Mayamata, unlocking timeless insights into the science of space and structure.
- This unique blend of scholarship and practice makes the course both intellectually rewarding and culturally transformative.
- Through projects, assignments, and real-life case studies, participants seamlessly bridge theory with hands-on practice.

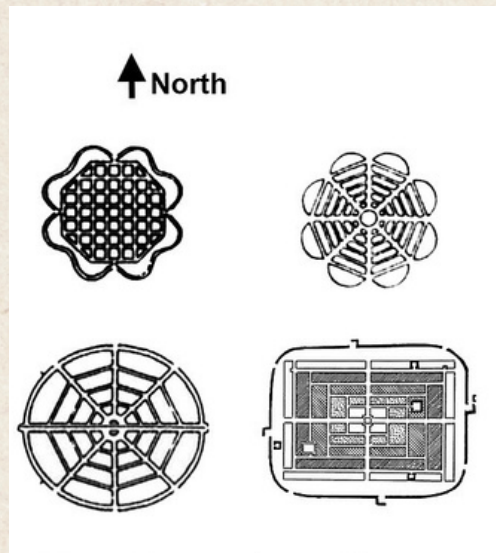

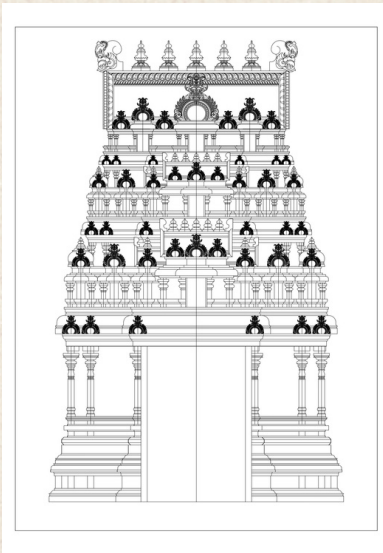

The Guiding Light

Prof. Dr. K. Dakshinamoorthy Sthapati is a renowned hereditary architect, sculptor, and Vaastu expert. Trained under Padma Bhushan Dr. V. Ganapati Sthapati, he is the Managing Trustee of the Vastu Vedic Trust and has led several prestigious temple and heritage projects. His vast experience offers learners authentic insights into India's traditional architectural wisdom.
